

San Francisco, CA – December 14, 2010

Press Release

Denning & Company, LLC a premier provider of Private Equity Placement and Advisory Services, headquartered in San Francisco today announced that Jill Kitazaki has been promoted to President. She has been with the firm since 2002 as Managing Director and Chief Operations Officer. She has worked with Paul F. Denning, Founder and CEO, since 1996, initially at Hambrecht & Quist.

Jill is a gifted investment banker known and respected by all with whom she has worked. She has consistently demonstrated an ability to professionally represent and match the specific needs of both General Partners seeking to raise capital and Limited Partners interested in superior investment opportunities. Her unique personal skills and strict work ethic make her an inspiring model to emulate.

Jill is married to Derek Garvens, CEO of Derek Garvens Designs and has two children, ages 3 and 5. She is devoted to promoting the needs of women and minorities shaping their careers in business. Thus, her community service on the Parker School Board, member of the Advancement Council for the Punahou School, Steering Committee of the Private Equity WIN and as a respected speaker and sponsor of Women in Private Equity Summit events. Jill received her BS and MBA from The George Washington University.

About Denning & Company

Denning & Company, LLC, is a private equity advisory firm founded in 2001 and headquartered in San Francisco. The firm provides consulting, marketing, and fundraising services to established general partners as well as newer teams offering unique investment ideas or solutions to limited partner investors worldwide.

With over 70 years of combined industry experience, the Denning team has raised capital in excess of USD 9 billion for general partners based in the US, Japan/Asia, UK/Europe, Russia, and Israel from a limited partner base similarly diversified. For more information, please visit www.denningandcompany.com or call 415-399-3939.